WELLO VIRTUAL HEALTHCARE ACQUIRED BY MAPLE

To our valued RWAM Advisors,

RWAM is pleased to share with you that our partner in telemedicine, Wello, has been acquired by one of Canada's leading virtual care providers, Maple. This partnership will provide members with expanded access to 24/7 healthcare, bringing even more value to employer groups through technology and market leading patient experience. Please visit: Maple - Online Doctors, Virtual Health & Prescriptions in Canada to learn more about Maple.

A press release has been issued outlining additional details of the acquisition.
